

Today, the children have been working with Mr Smith, our IT consultant. They have been introduced to the ican animate app which is what we will be using for our stone age animations after Christmas!